WALTON ORDERS FIERY CROSSES REMOVED

CALLS THEM PAGAN EMBLEMS OF FEAR, HATRED, REBELLION

MEMBERS OF OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE ISSUE CALL FOR SPECIAL SESSION

ACCUSE GOVERNOR OF ESTABLISHING AN ABSOLUTE TYRANNY AND DESPOTISM

(By United Press)

Oklahoma City, Sept. 30.—"The mask must remain off in Oklahoma," sponsors for a special session of the legislature, called to meet September 26 to begin impeachment proceedings against Governor J. C. Walton, declared today.

Six members of the house of representatives who lead the agitation for a special session to remove the governor for his statewide martial law declaration and alleged abuse of his office went on record as favoring abolition of the mask, and urged unreserved efforts to curb mob violence in the state.

The governor in a proclamation ordered fiery crosses which had been erected in many cities since martial law was declared Sunday removed immediately. They are "pagan emblems of fear, hatred and rebellion." the governor said.

Members of the legislature who are agitating for a special session to start impeachment proceedings against the executive issued the call for the meeting. The call was signed by 45 members of the lower house, nine less than a quorum. In the document the governor is accused of "establishing an absolute tyranny and despotism over this commonwealth."

Editors of daily newspapers of the state met in Tulsa yesterday and issued an address to the people of the United States in which they declared the governor's fight was not on the Ku Klux Klan but he was merely using that as a cloak for carrying out political purposes. The editors declared that the governor's statement that "rebellion and insurrection" existed was a libel on the state.

FIERY CROSS IS DYNAMITED

Sapulpa, Okla., Sept. 20.—A fiery cross erected by the Ku Klux Klan of the city in the northern section of the city was dynamited early today. The blast damaged the cement base. Police were unable to determine whether the cross had been dynamited by those who erected it in obedience to the governor's order or by enemies of the organization.

ASK THAT VERDICT BE SET ASIDE

PLEA MADE BY ATTORNEYS OF VICTOR H. ARNOLD IN SUPERIOR

(By United Press)

Superior, Wis., Sept. 20.—Attorneys for Victor H. Arnold were to present arguments before Judge C. Z. Luse in Federal court today asking that the verdict finding Arnold guilty on eleven of 26 counts contained in the indictment charging him with obtaining millions through fraudulent schemes while president of the Madison Bond company be set aside.

They allege the jury was improperly empanelled and for this reason the verdict should not stand.

H. S. Corbett, leading attorney for the former bondsman, announced that he would appeal to the supreme court if necessary.

The jury found Arnold guilty yesterday after several hours' deliberation on eleven counts. These include only one of the three schemes with which Arnold was charged, the issuance of two series of collateral gold bonds backed by defaulted and misrepresented security.

If attorneys for Arnold do not succeed in having the verdict set aside, sentence will be passed today.

New York Newspapers Issue Despite Strike

New York, Sept. 20.—George L. Berry of the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants union was to meet officers of the New York Web Pressmen's union No. 25, members of which struck and curtailed publication of New York newspapers.

Mr. Berry, in a letter sent to the local union, ordered the men to return to work, declaring the strike was unauthorized and failure to comply immediately with his request would result in a suspension of the union's charter.

The Daily News, the American, the World, the Herald, the Tribune and the Morning Telegraph today published eight page papers.

Guards Are Posted

New York, Sept. 20.—Additional police guards were posted today outside the offices of New York newspapers where combined editions are being published despite the pressmen's strike. The lines of battle were tightened with men and employers both voting determined resistance to the other's demands at meetings lasting into the early hours.

Major George L. Berry, president of the international printing pressmen's union, ordered the men back to work but they refused to go. After this decision had been announced the publishers called for a new union and asked that all strikers be outlawed.

Meanwhile New York's newspaper readers were without papers for the most part. An increasing number of the combined editions of eight pages appeared for sale, but the number was not nearly sufficient to take care of the news hungry city's demands.

"TRYING TO KEEP A UNITED FRONT IN THE INSIDE OF GERMANY"

CARL D. GROAT OF UNITED PRESS SO DESCRIBES TEUTON SITUATION

REICHSTAG MAY BE SUMMONED TO CONVENE SOME TIME NEXT WEEK

(By United Press)

Berlin, Sept. 20. — Detailed terms of the cabinet decision to abandon passive resistance in the Ruhr were eagerly awaited today as the government struggled to maintain a united front inside the nation.

It was considered likely the Reichstag will be summoned to convene towards the end of next week. When it does convene, verbal fireworks over the Ruhr, currency and other topics are expected. From details already available it was known the new offer has a decidedly "capitulative spirit." Chancellor Stresemann no longer insists on immediate restoration of the German disposition of the Ruhr and Rhineland.

The cabinet, in its offer through the Belgian ambassador, carefully avoided the term capitulation, but there can be no question of the substance of the decision, for it was held impossible to continue passive resistance either fully or partly for any length of time.

GERMAN GOVERNMENT IS IN A QUANDARY

Berlin, Sept. 20. — The German government today was hoping against hope that it will be able to announce in the Reichstag when it convenes on Wednesday the cabinet's decision to lay down the weapon of passive resistance in the Ruhr. Chancellor Stresemann was known to feel if the proposals made through the Belgian ambassador are received favorably the government will be able to control the internal situation despite the vehement protests already made by the reactionary and monarchistic elements.

The chancellor feels a sudden and dramatic announcement of capitulation indicating the trend of affairs would be better than to drag along slowly to defeat, and that the existing situation is more dangerous than the sudden shock of surrender.

S O S CALL IN FOG FROM VESSEL NEAR NEW HAVEN, CONN.

New York, Sept. 20—"S. O. S.," the wireless call that strikes a chill in the hearts of mariners, was flashed from a vessel in distress 10 miles east of New Haven, Conn., during the night.

Naval authorities ordered silence, broadcasting programs and news transmission were stopped, and the call came repeatedly from the sea.

The name of the vessel in distress was garbled. It is believed possible it was the tanker Occidental, out of Boston.

Efforts to communicate with the stricken vessel were unsuccessfull and the affair remained a mystery of the fog this morning.

The steamer Concord proceeded slowly through the dense banks of fog towards the spot indicated by the calls.

INVESTIGATION FOLLOWS DEATH OF ROCKFORD, ILL., STUDENT NURSE

(By United Press)

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 20.—Coroner Fred C. Olson, investigating the death of Miss Svea Olson, 24, a student nurse, today issued a plea for the young man who brought her to the hospital Tuesday night to appear before him for examination. Olson is keeping the man's name secret. While the coroner believes there was no foul play, he wants to determine what transpired before the death, believed due to heart trouble. A certificate of death was not made out, however, and will be held up until the man in the case is found.

A man described as about 30 drove the girl to the hospital, told nurses she had had a fainting spell, brought her in, and departed. The girl was dead.

THREE ST. LOUIS DISTRICTS SET ASIDE FOR USE OF NEGROES

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 20.—Establishment of executive negro residential sections of this city to take care of the colored population's 50 per cent increase since 1920 has been approved by the 375 members of the St. Louis real estate exchange.

Three districts have been set aside and the members of the exchange will sell no property to negroes outside of these districts, as far as possible.

The districts are the ones in which the densest negro populations now are located. One district, housing 5,000, is capable of holding 30,000, realtors said. Another district, in which between 50,000 and 55,000 negroes now live, has a capacity of 100,000.

The negro population has increased from 65,000 in 1920 to 100,000, practically all of the increase coming from the south, authorities estimate.

Organization of a home financing association to assist negroes in building their own homes in these districts have been proposed in plans submitted by the real estate men to leaders among the negroes.

No action has been taken yet on this offer, which provided that a committee would appeal to the citizens of the city to raise caiptal to meet, dollar-for-dollar, the money raised by each negro, the money raised to be lent through recognized loan associations on easy terms.

St. Cloud, Sept. 20—Experts called in by the state of Wisconsin to help solve the mysterious murder of Edward S. Armstrong of St. Cloud, Minn., and Minneapolis, whose body was found in a deserted farmhouse near Stevens Point, Wis., today determined that Armstrong was killed by a bullet fired into his head at close range.

Dr. T. E. T. Bunting, state pathologist, traced the path of the bullet.

The body had been in the farmhouse about three weeks before it was found, and physicians previously had stated that they could not determine whether death was due to a bullet, or to a blow on the head.

VANDALS TAMPERING WITH ROAD MARKERS

HIGHWAY BULLETIN WARNS DAMAGING NEW SIGNS MEAN SEVERE PENALTIES

Reports from various parts of the state that vandals and small boys are tampering with the newly erected yellow and black guide signs on trunk routes bring a warning in a highway bulletin this week that such offenses are punishable by fines and jail sentences.

The bulletin points out that the markers are posted for public safety and convenience and those who have no regard for their own protection should not deprive others of it. Parents and school teachers are requested to explain to pupils that the yellow highways signs are to prevent accidents and to guide travelers. Hunters shooting at the markers are held lacking in good sportsmanship and the bulletin adds may pay heavily for the practice.

Urging public co-operation for preservation of the official signs, highway officials said that all offenses against them will be prosecuted.

ALTENBURG RECEIVES $10,000 THROUGH WILL OF SAN FRANCISCO WOMAN

Altenburg, Germany, Sept. 20.—By inheritance of $10,000 from the estate of Mrs. Emily Marx, who died some years ago in San Francisco, this city of 45,000 inhabitants is prepared to pay off all of its indebtedness if the municipal authorities decide to do so.

Mrs. Marx was born in Altenburg, once the home of the Duke of Saxony-Altenburg. As a girl she went to the United States where her family acquired wealth. She died in 1912, leaving $50,000 to the municipality of Altenburg, but the will was contested.

Recently a settlement was reached whereby the city received $10,000. The case had been in the courts of California since 1913.

SAID GIRL FAINTED BUT SHE HAD DIED

INVESTIGATION FOLLOWS DEATH OF ROCKFORD, ILL., STUDENT NURSE

(By United Press)

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 20.—Coroner Fred C. Olson, investigating the death of Miss Svea Olson, 24, a student nurse, today issued a plea for the young man who brought her to the hospital Tuesday night to appear before him for examination. Olson is keeping the man's name secret. While the coroner believes there was no foul play, he wants to determine what transpired before the death, believed due to heart trouble. A certificate of death was not made out, however, and will be held up until the man in the case is found.

A man described as about 30 drove the girl to the hospital, told nurses she had had a fainting spell, brought her in, and departed. The girl was dead.

THREE ST. LOUIS DISTRICTS SET ASIDE FOR USE OF NEGROES

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 20.—Establishment of executive negro residential sections of this city to take care of the colored population's 50 per cent increase since 1920 has been approved by the 375 members of the St. Louis real estate exchange.

Three districts have been set aside and the members of the exchange will sell no property to negroes outside of these districts, as far as possible.

The districts are the ones in which the densest negro populations now are located. One district, housing 5,000, is capable of holding 30,000, realtors said. Another district, in which between 50,000 and 55,000 negroes now live, has a capacity of 100,000.

The negro population has increased from 65,000 in 1920 to 100,000, practically all of the increase coming from the south, authorities estimate.

Organization of a home financing association to assist negroes in building their own homes in these districts have been proposed in plans submitted by the real estate men to leaders among the negroes.

No action has been taken yet on this offer, which provided that a committee would appeal to the citizens of the city to raise caiptal to meet, dollar-for-dollar, the money raised by each negro, the money raised to be lent through recognized loan associations on easy terms.

BULLET, NOT BLOW, KILLED ARMSTRONG

St. Cloud, Sept. 20—Experts called in by the state of Wisconsin to help solve the mysterious murder of Edward S. Armstrong of St. Cloud, Minn., and Minneapolis, whose body was found in a deserted farmhouse near Stevens Point, Wis., today determined that Armstrong was killed by a bullet fired into his head at close range.

Dr. T. E. T. Bunting, state pathologist, traced the path of the bullet.

The body had been in the farmhouse about three weeks before it was found, and physicians previously had stated that they could not determine whether death was due to a bullet, or to a blow on the head.

TO FRAME THE ADMINISTRATION NEW PROGRAM

HE INTENDS TO ERADICATE BLOC AND FACTIONAL LINES

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE TO BE INVITED TO THE WHITE HOUSE

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 20.—President Coolidge will invite all blocs, groups and factions in the republican majority in congress to join with him in framing the administration's program to be submitted in December.

He intends to eradicate bloc and factional lines by making leaders of the blocs sharers with him in the responsibility for the so-called administration measures.

Senator LaFollette, head of the progressive group in the house and senate, will be invited to the White House to confer on legislation soon after he returns from Europe. Similarly Mr. Coolidge will establish contact with Frazier, Magnus Johnson and other incoming blocs, and with Brookhart, the aggressive Iowan.

The rumor that Miss Vanhart was attired in a bathing suit when last seen was denied by Mrs. W. L. Newbre whom the girl is visiting. Mrs. Newbre said Miss Vanhart returned when she saw notices of her disappearance in the newspapers.

VANDALS TAMPERING WITH ROAD MARKERS

HIGHWAY BULLETIN WARNS DAMAGING NEW SIGNS MEAN SEVERE PENALTIES

Reports from various parts of the state that vandals and small boys are tampering with the newly erected yellow and black guide signs on trunk routes bring a warning in a highway bulletin this week that such offenses are punishable by fines and jail sentences.

The bulletin points out that the markers are posted for public safety and convenience and those who have no regard for their own protection should not deprive others of it. Parents and school teachers are requested to explain to pupils that the yellow highways signs are to prevent accidents and to guide travelers. Hunters shooting at the markers are held lacking in good sportsmanship and the bulletin adds may pay heavily for the practice.

Urging public co-operation for preservation of the official signs, highway officials said that all offenses against them will be prosecuted.

176 CAR DEALERS ON HUNTING TRIP

Payne Motor Co. to Entertain Paige and Jewett Dealers at Hunting Lodge

AT LAKE WINNIBIGOSHISH

Fish Day, Duck Day, Indian Day, Etc. Marking Entertainment of Different Days of Week

E. C. Bane, of the Bane Auto Company, local dealer selling the Paige and Jewett automobiles, is planning to join the 175 other dealers in this territory in a week's hunting and fishing trip starting September 30th.

The Paige and Jewett dealers who will be the guests of the company they represent, will come from the states of Iowa, Montana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota.

Leaving Des Moines, the headquarters of the Payne Motor Company, under whom dealers in this territory work, a special train will carry the guests to Lake Winnibigoshish, where a private hunting lodge, owned and operated by real sportsmen, will be especially fitted up for the occasion in true he-man style.

Bathing suits will be the order of the day, provided the frost is not too thick on the ground, and any one caught wearing a tie or business togs of any kind will be ducked in the lake, regardless of clothes or weather conditions.

The various days of the week will be designated as "Fish Day, "Duck Day," "Indian Day," etc. The latter day will be one for the entertaining of Indians of the Chippewa tribe, who live on the reservation nearby. It is planned to have at least five hundred Indians dressed in their native customes that have been handed down from generation to generation, put on a program of native games and sports for prizes which will be offered by the Payne Motor Co.

A large wireless receiving outfit will be installed immediately upon arrival at the camp, so that the hunters and fishermen will be able to enjoy concerts broadcasted, market reports, weather forecast, etc.

Mr. Bane expects to bring home rare tales of the big fish that got away, the enormous flocks of ducks on the lake and the bear that tore up the camp at two o'clock in the morning.

AMUSEMENTS

"The White Flower" Makes Hit

Scoring a sensation at its premier, Betty Compson's latest Paramount picture, "The White Flower," opened at the Lyceum Theatre last evening.

There have been many pictures of the South Seas and Hawaiian Islands, but never has there been one like "The White Flower," in which the plot, as well as the photography, is most praiseworthy. These two features are happily combined in this charming production, which has its last showing tonight at the Lyceum.

Costly Duck Hunt

Ducks—$30 apiece!

Not related to the goose that laid the golden egg, either. Just plain, ordinary wild ducks that rise with the rustle of a stick and are as hard to shoot on the wing as quail.

But $30 each for three ducks, $90 in all, is what Jack Holt paid for that many of the wild fowl. Resting before starting work in "Nobody's Money," a Paramount picture in which he is starred, and which will be shown at the Lyceum theatre Friday and Saturday, Mr. Holt decided on a brief duck hunt.

So away he went, over the famous Ridge Route and far up into the "wilds of California." He left home at 3:30 a. m. and returned at 11:45 p. m. that night, having traveled 178 miles in his car and bagging but three wild ducks.

He ruined the two rear tires on one of his automobiles making the trip, two new casings costing him $42 each. The remaining $6 was spent on shells, food and a tip or so. Total, $90. Result, 3 ducks. Cost per duck, $30.

"The Ne'er-Do-Well' Coming

The Paramount picture, "The Ne'er-Do-Well," which will be the big feature at the Lyceum Theatre for three days beginning Sunday, brings Thomas Meighan and Lila Lee on the screen together again. This is a story of a ne'er-do-well's regeneration. Taken from the famous Rex Beach book.

Michigan "U" May Get British Poet Laureate

New York, Sept. 20. — Robert Bridges, British poet laureate, probably will accept the chair of the fellowship of creative art at the University of Michigan, Dr. Marion L. Burton, president of the institution and formerly president of the University of Minnesota, announced on his arrival on the steamship Majestic. Mr. Bridges would succeed Robert Frost, American poet, first occupant of the chair. Dr. Burton said that Bridges virtually accepted his invitation to visit America from December to June, when he would be obliged only to reside at the university, lectures and classes to be arranged at his will.

Lavish Picture is "Poor Men's Wives"

It probably will be pretty generally agreed by theatregoers that "Poor Men's Wives" are poor in name only after the unusual picture production of that title, which will be shown at the New Park last time tonight.

For in this Al Lichtman attraction Director Gasnier has made use of beautiful women, elaborate settings and remarkable artistic photography to tell a story that is brimful of the colored contrasts of light and shadow that go to make up a great photoplay.

The production is a fitting sequel to "Rich Men's Wives." It is from the pen of the same writers, Agnes Christine Johnston and Frank Dazey, the work of the same director and the same studio organization. But it promises to be an even greater success—which is saying a lot.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1923

COMMUNITY SALES' DAY

THERE is a real interest in the October Community Sales' day. If the weather is good, October 10th will see a large turn-over in the business houses of Brainerd and the city will have a real, live appearance as the crowds come in from the adjacent territory.

Nothing could be better for Brainerd's business life than such a day. There is a danger that merchants may come to rely upon tourist business and the business that naturally comes their way and feel that they need not advertise. This may be true. They may not need to advertise to keep their present volume of business but they must advertise if they are to get the business which is now going to catalog houses.

This day serves another good purpose by stimulating interest in Brainerd and its business houses and by showing people who have been trading elsewhere what Brainerd has to offer. When their wants are met and met as they expect to have them met they will be inclined to make Brainerd their trading point.

There is yet another purpose which the day may or may not serve. It has not been served yet, and it seems sometimes that it never will be. It is less likely to result from the Community Sales' day than any of the other advantages named, but if it does come in, in a small measure, its advantage will be real. We refer to the matter of merchants and professional men trading out of town. They offer their wares or their services to the public and encourage the upbuilding of Brainerd's life by their advertising, but by their own trading they limit Brainerd's growth. Trading at home is helped most by example, and the stores will be better stocked, the turn-over increased, the income larger, the profits greater in proportion, the possibility of raising funds for developing good things improved, the enlargement of business houses encouraged and many other interests served, when all of our people, including business and professional men who sometimes buy their most costly purchases out of town, trade at home.

BEAUTIFUL BRAINERD

BRAINERD is a beautiful city. Brainerd can be made a more beautiful city. There is a readiness to be satisfied with what is and there is a spirit that always looks for something better. Brainerd, a city of trees, well-paved streets, lawns and attractive buildings, does not need to be improved, may be the verdict of those who are without vision, while others see the possibility of making the city more beautiful, and it is its present pleasing and attractive appearance that stirs them to action for the purpose of making the city more delightful.

There are buildings in Brainerd that Brainerd would be better without. There are lots in Brainerd that had better be in some other town. There are lawns in Brainerd that belie their name, and there are possibilities of beautifying Brainerd which have been mere dreams of enthusiasts but which may be made real without a great deal of expense or effort.

There are at least two spots in Brainerd that offer the opportunity of improvement which, because of their natural setting, could easily be made into places of unique attractiveness. The falling land known as the Koering field and the valley lying directly south of the County building lend themselves to the development of the landscape gardener. If these are used for other purposes than as parks, before the citizens of Brainerd catch the vision that will result in their being laid out as parks, the leaders of this day will be guilty of neglecting Brainerd's future. It is just because men years ago had visions that Chicago is to be one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Had it not been for the work of one man, Grant park would be covered with buildings and Chicago would have lost one of its greatest assets.

There is another phase of this matter in which all citizens can play their part. Flowers may be cultivated; lawns may be started and well-kept, trees may be trimmed, and numerous other small things attended to that will go towards making Brainerd more beautiful.

CONSTITUTION WEEK

THOSE who are advised of the inroads that have been made into the traditions of the American government by those who would overthrow it will be ready to further the purpose of the American Bar association during Constitution Week. A lack of consideration of the dangers that lie ahead if extreme measures are taken is largely responsible for the radical tendencies. There is no reason why America should see bloodshed in realizing a form of government desired by the majority. There are constitutional methods of change and the road traveled by the Russian peasant need not be traveled by the American people. Ballots are more effective than bullets and ballots change without killing.

Because a man emphasizes the values of the Constitution he is not necessarily a reactionary. Even the last president of the American Bar association favors amendment of the Constitution. But the important thing is to have some standard that may be changed but which constitutes a norm.

Ministers, teachers, publicists and others will remember that the week of September 16 to 22 is Constitution Week and they will use every opportunity to point out the significance of the Constitution and the things for which it stands.

THE G. O. P. re-apportions the votes from the states in the next republican convention. The South loses a number of votes and the Middle West gains a number. Which is the more dangerous these days?

IT is claimed that the radio may bring in the day of a universal language and make possible communications between peoples of other nations. What will the poor fan do when they are all in the air?

GIRL STEALS SKIRT, RETURNS FOR BELT AND IS CAUGHT

St. Cloud Times: Better a skirt without a belt than one with it, says Anna Perlowski who was arrested Saturday after taking a skirt from one of the local department stores. About noon she looked over a number of skirts in one of the stores, and while the clerk was getting others from the case, tucked one under her arm and disappeared. Later in the afternoon, the girl returned and tried to steal the belt, police said. She was caught in her second attempt and was held for the police. She was sent back to Virginia, her home, late Saturday afternoon.

Don't Blame Wife's Cooking If Your Digestion Is Poor

When your appetite isn't what it used to be and your digestion is poor. When food sours on your stomach, causes gases to form around your heart and makes you nervous and uncomfortable after meals. When you don't get refreshing sleep nights and wake up half-tired and are often constipated. Don't blame your food and don't take soda or drugs that may hurt the lining of your stomach.

Build yourself up! Strengthen your digestive organs so that they function naturally at every meal. Dr. H. S. Thacher, the noted stomach specialist, perfected a delicious vegetable tonic that is ideally suited to the weakened stomach. Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, as the medicine is named, not only improves digestion, but helps soothe and tone the overtaxed nerves, wake up the sluggish liver, gently relieve constipation and send purer, healthier blood coursing through the veins. It has helped thousands regain that delightful feeling of strength, energy and "pep."

Get quick, lasting relief! Take a delicious tablespoonful of Dr. Thacher's tonic after the next few meals and notice the quick difference in the way you eat, sleep and feel. Your money will be returned without question if you fail to get complete satisfaction.

Get it in Brainerd at Johnson's Pharmacy and at the leading druggists in every town.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1923

COMMUNITY SALES' DAY

THERE is a real interest in the October Community Sales' day. If the weather is good, October 10th will see a large turn-over in the business houses of Brainerd and the city will have a real, live appearance as the crowds come in from the adjacent territory.

Nothing could be better for Brainerd's business life than such a day. There is a danger that merchants may come to rely upon tourist business and the business that naturally comes their way and feel that they need not advertise. This may be true. They may not need to advertise to keep their present volume of business but they must advertise if they are to get the business which is now going to catalog houses.

This day serves another good purpose by stimulating interest in Brainerd and its business houses and by showing people who have been trading elsewhere what Brainerd has to offer. When their wants are met and met as they expect to have them met they will be inclined to make Brainerd their trading point.

There is yet another purpose which the day may or may not serve. It has not been served yet, and it seems sometimes that it never will be. It is less likely to result from the Community Sales' day than any of the other advantages named, but if it does come in, in a small measure, its advantage will be real. We refer to the matter of merchants and professional men trading out of town. They offer their wares or their services to the public and encourage the upbuilding of Brainerd's life by their advertising, but by their own trading they limit Brainerd's growth. Trading at home is helped most by example, and the stores will be better stocked, the turn-over increased, the income larger, the profits greater in proportion, the possibility of raising funds for developing good things improved, the enlargement of business houses encouraged and many other interests served, when all of our people, including business and professional men who sometimes buy their most costly purchases out of town, trade at home.

BEAUTIFUL BRAINERD

BRAINERD is a beautiful city. Brainerd can be made a more beautiful city. There is a readiness to be satisfied with what is and there is a spirit that always looks for something better. Brainerd, a city of trees, well-paved streets, lawns and attractive buildings, does not need to be improved, may be the verdict of those who are without vision, while others see the possibility of making the city more beautiful, and it is its present pleasing and attractive appearance that stirs them to action for the purpose of making the city more delightful.

There are buildings in Brainerd that Brainerd would be better without. There are lots in Brainerd that had better be in some other town. There are lawns in Brainerd that belie their name, and there are possibilities of beautifying Brainerd which have been mere dreams of enthusiasts but which may be made real without a great deal of expense or effort.

There are at least two spots in Brainerd that offer the opportunity of improvement which, because of their natural setting, could easily be made into places of unique attractiveness. The falling land known as the Koering field and the valley lying directly south of the County building lend themselves to the development of the landscape gardener. If these are used for other purposes than as parks, before the citizens of Brainerd catch the vision that will result in their being laid out as parks, the leaders of this day will be guilty of neglecting Brainerd's future. It is just because men years ago had visions that Chicago is to be one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Had it not been for the work of one man, Grant park would be covered with buildings and Chicago would have lost one of its greatest assets.

There is another phase of this matter in which all citizens can play their part. Flowers may be cultivated; lawns may be started and well-kept, trees may be trimmed, and numerous other small things attended to that will go towards making Brainerd more beautiful.

CONSTITUTION WEEK

THOSE who are advised of the inroads that have been made into the traditions of the American government by those who would overthrow it will be ready to further the purpose of the American Bar association during Constitution Week. A lack of consideration of the dangers that lie ahead if extreme measures are taken is largely responsible for the radical tendencies. There is no reason why America should see bloodshed in realizing a form of government desired by the majority. There are constitutional methods of change and the road traveled by the Russian peasant need not be traveled by the American people. Ballots are more effective than bullets and ballots change without killing.

Because a man emphasizes the values of the Constitution he is not necessarily a reactionary. Even the last president of the American Bar association favors amendment of the Constitution. But the important thing is to have some standard that may be changed but which constitutes a norm.

Ministers, teachers, publicists and others will remember that the week of September 16 to 22 is Constitution Week and they will use every opportunity to point out the significance of the Constitution and the things for which it stands.

THE G. O. P. re-apportions the votes from the states in the next republican convention. The South loses a number of votes and the Middle West gains a number. Which is the more dangerous these days?

IT is claimed that the radio may bring in the day of a universal language and make possible communications between peoples of other nations. What will the poor fan do when they are all in the air?

CITY STREETS ARE BEING IMPROVED

Northeast and Southeast Sections of City Have Many Brushed and Graded

ACCOMPLISHED IN 3 WEEKS

67 Blocks Were Graded in N. E. Brainerd, Work in S. E. Brainerd Described

Many improvements have been made in a number of streets of the city, in the past month, which the general public has not been aware of. The street, sidewalk and bridge committee of the city council, aided by the city engineer, R. T. Campbell and his men, have brushed and graded many of the streets in Northeast and Southeast Brainerd, which, up to this time, had been little more than trails.

All of this work was accomplished in three weeks, with the aid of a large grader and Holt ten-ton tractor, the property of the state highway department. The work contemplated could have been comleted in another three days if the grader could have been secured for that additional time.

Sixty-seven blocks, according to the city engineer, were graded in Northeast Brainerd on the following streets east of Third avenue: Farrar, Forsythe, Pine, Prescott-Oak, Myrtle-Maple, Pearl-Elm, Rosabel and Kinsey from the cemetery east to their limits. All of First, Second Avenues, three blocks on Third Avenue north of Ash avenue, and all of First, Second, Third and Eighth streets.

A. D. Peterson, chairman of the council committee, conferred with W. H. Strachan, superintendent of the Lake Superior division of the Northern Pacific Railway, who promised to furnish a number of carloads of cinders necessary to place the west end of Pearl street at the south-east corner of the cemetery in proper condition so that it will not wash-out, the difficulty experienced in past years. It is planned to ditch along this end of the street, with a culvert under the spur track that runs to the paper mill. This alone is a much needed improvement, since much of the traffic to the cemetery is routed by Northeast Brainerd.

Southeast Brainerd has received its share of street improvement, also. Beginning at the south side of the shop fence, the streets running east and west have all been graded, including East Laurel, Maple, Norwood, Pine, Quince and Rosewood. Eleventh, Twelfth and Fourteenth streets, running north and south have also been graded, and the city limits road from the Dodd corner on Oak street south for half a mile has been brushed and graded.

On the north side, the two blocks on north Third street from the St. Joseph hospital to Bluff avenue have been graded.

Much credit is due the council committee composed of A. D. Peterson, Ernest Ritari and C. G. Holmstrom, for its activity in the street improvements. An adequate idea of the work that was accomplished in so short a time can only be gained by driving the various streets named above and contrasting them with the condition that they were in previously. Most of these streets had never had any work done on them and the improvement is very much appreciated.

BIDS GLAD GOODBYE TO ROADSIDE "ADS"

The Lincoln, Neb., Daily Journal says that the highway commissioner of Minnesota has issued an order of enforcement of the law against billboards on trunk highway right-of-ways, upon which Major Nelson of the Fairmont Daily Sentinel, who recently made a trip overland to the north line of the state, thus happily comments:

"The man who travels unfamiliar roads at night will endorse the highway commissioner's edict that all but traffic signs must leave the right-of-way on the trunk lines. At night one looks for traffic signs and is constantly befuddled by slogan's announcing Morton's salt, Regan's bread, Funkerton's department store and other roadside propaganda. This slows up travel and causes one to go astray. It recently took me five hours to travel a certain piece of road at night because of these impediments that I easily made in two hours in the daytime when I could tell one sign from another."

Major Nelson commended the new highway marking and added: "You can't make the roads foolproof except by killing off the fools."

Pays Tribute to State of 10,000 Lakes In Its September Issue

The Mid-West Hotel Reporter in its September number pays a fine tribute to the state of the ten thousand lakes, "Where the Wish to Fish is Gratified."

The magazine, published in Omaha Neb., finds its way to a dozen surounding states, and the current number advertises the twenty-first annual convention of the Northwestern Hotel Association which opened Thursday at the St. Paul hotel in St. Paul.

The front cover design of the Reporter is given over to views of the Minnesota lake region, and the first inside page to an advertisement of the Ten Thousand Lakes Association. Several articles throughout the magazine praise the playground facilities of this state, and are accompanied by numerous pictures taken in the lake country.

The annual convention of the hotel association will be in session the last three days of this week, with appropriate programs on each day. On Friday morning Ernest Butler, of the Ransford hotel will address the meeting on the subject, "The Care of Tourists."

The entertainment committee has planned, in addition to the regular program, several theatre parties, a golfers complimentary breakfast, a handicap golf tournament, and a farewell party on Saturday afternoon.

If You Did the Baking, Mr. Man--

You wouldn't spend another winter teasing along that grumpy old stove with its broken down fire box, its worn out flues, its balky drafts, and its unruly oven.

It's a stumbling block to your wife's best laid plans. It causes her more trouble than all the rest of the housework combined.

You know you've planned to get her a new one—now let's see—just how long has it been since you agreed to get rid of the old nuisance?

Don't Put It Off Any Longer

Come in and see the Marswell.

We want you to see what a beauty it is. We'll show you why its oven bakes evenly, its fire box saves fuel, its body resists rust, its top stays level and does not turn red or rust.

When you've examined these points we're sure you'll agree that the price, $85.00, is moderate, particularly when you consider that it will last a life time.

CITY STREETS ARE BEING IMPROVED

Northeast and Southeast Sections of City Have Many Brushed and Graded

ACCOMPLISHED IN 3 WEEKS

67 Blocks Were Graded in N. E. Brainerd, Work in S. E. Brainerd Described

Many improvements have been made in a number of streets of the city, in the past month, which the general public has not been aware of. The street, sidewalk and bridge committee of the city council, aided by the city engineer, R. T. Campbell and his men, have brushed and graded many of the streets in Northeast and Southeast Brainerd, which, up to this time, had been little more than trails.

All of this work was accomplished in three weeks, with the aid of a large grader and Holt ten-ton tractor, the property of the state highway department. The work contemplated could have been comleted in another three days if the grader could have been secured for that additional time.

Sixty-seven blocks, according to the city engineer, were graded in Northeast Brainerd on the following streets east of Third avenue: Farrar, Forsythe, Pine, Prescott-Oak, Myrtle-Maple, Pearl-Elm, Rosabel and Kinsey from the cemetery east to their limits. All of First, Second Avenues, three blocks on Third Avenue north of Ash avenue, and all of First, Second, Third and Eighth streets.

A. D. Peterson, chairman of the council committee, conferred with W. H. Strachan, superintendent of the Lake Superior division of the Northern Pacific Railway, who promised to furnish a number of carloads of cinders necessary to place the west end of Pearl street at the south-east corner of the cemetery in proper condition so that it will not wash-out the difficulty experienced in past years. It is planned to ditch along this end of the street, with a culvert under the spur track that runs to the paper mill. This alone is a much needed improvement, since much of the traffic to the cemetery is routed by Northeast Brainerd.

Southeast Brainerd has received its share of street improvement, also. Beginning at the south side of the shop fence, the streets running east and west have all been graded, including East Laurel, Maple, Norwood, Pine, Quince and Rosewood. Eleventh, Twelfth and Fourteenth streets, running north and south have also been graded, and the city limits road from the Dodd corner on Oak street south for half a mile has been brushed and graded.

On the north side, the two blocks on north Third street from the St. Joseph hospital to Bluff avenue have been graded.

Much credit is due the council committee composed of A. D. Peterson, Ernest Ritari and C. G. Holmstrom, for its activity in the street improvements. An adequate idea of the work that was accomplished in so short a time can only be gained by driving the various streets named above and contrasting them with the condition that they were in previously. Most of these streets had never had any work done on them and the improvement is very much appreciated.

BIDS GLAD GOODBYE TO ROADSIDE "ADS"

The Lincoln, Neb., Daily Journal says that the highway commissioner of Minnesota has issued an order of enforcement of the law against billboards on trunk highway right-of-ways, upon which Major Nelson of the Fairmont Daily Sentinel, who recently made a trip overland to the north line of the state, thus happily comments:

"The man who travels unfamiliar roads at night will endorse the highway commissioner's edict that all but traffic signs must leave the right-of-way on the trunk lines. At night one looks for traffic signs and is constantly befuddled by slogan's announcing Morton's salt, Regan's bread, Punkerton's department store and other roadside propaganda. This slows up travel and causes one to go astray. It recently took me five hours to travel a certain piece of road at night because of these impediments that I easily made in two hours in the daytime when I could tell one sign from another."

Major Nelson commended the new highway marking and added: "You can't make the roads foolproof except by killing off the fools."

Pays Tribute to State of 10,000 Lakes In Its September Issue

The Mid-West Hotel Reporter in its September number pays a fine tribute to the state of the ten thousand lakes, "Where the Wish to Fish is Gratified."

The magazine, published in Omaha Neb., finds its way to a dozen surounding states, and the current number advertises the twenty-first annual convention of the Northwestern Hotel Association which opened Thursday at the St. Paul hotel in St. Paul.

The front cover design of the Reporter is given over to views of the Minnesota lake region, and the first inside page to an advertisement of the Ten Thousand Lakes Association. Several articles throughout the magazine praise the playground facilities of this state, and are accompanied by numerous pictures taken in the lake country.

The annual convention of the hotel association will be in session the last three days of this week, with appropriate programs on each day. On Friday morning Ernest Butler, of the Ransford hotel will address the meeting on the subject, "The Care of Tourists."

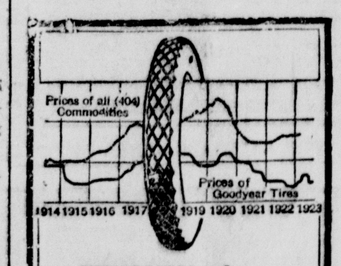

The entertainment committee has planned, in addition to the regular program, several theatre parties, a golfers complimentary breakfast, a handicap golf tournament, and a farewell party on Saturday afternoon.

If You Did the Baking, Mr. Man--

You wouldn't spend another winter teasing along that grumpy old stove with its broken down fire box, its worn out flues, its balky drafts, and its unruly oven.

It's a stumbling block to your wife's best laid plans. It causes her more trouble than all the rest of the housework combined.

You know you've planned to get her a new one—now let's see—just how long has it been since you agreed to get rid of the old nuisance?

Don't Put It Off Any Longer

Come in and see the Marswell.

We want you to see what a beauty it is. We'll show you why its oven bakes evenly, its fire box saves fuel, its body resists rust, its top stays level and does not turn red or rust.

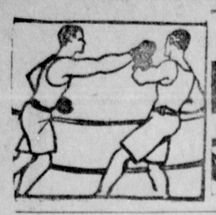

When you've examined these points we're sure you'll agree that the price, $85.00, is moderate, particularly when you consider that it will last a life time.

SPORTS

THE GREATEST BASEBALL FIND OF 1923

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Sept. 20.—Picking the best young ball player of the season as the major league schedules thin down to the last few games of the year is the opening of training for the Hot Stove League.

It is an old diversion, a source of unending arguments and a question that is seldom settled. Ideas about ball players vary with the individuals. Infielders favor infielders, outfielders lean toward outfielders and pitchers apply the closest scrutiny to young hurlers.

Many competent critics regard young Tony Kauffman, the Chicago Cub pitcher, as the best find of the season.

Christy Mathewson, now president of the Boston Braves, expressed the opinion recently that Kauffman is the finest looking pitcher he has seen in years.

The development of Kauffman has an interesting background that is all the more interesting when applied to the praises sounded by Mathewson.

Kauffman is the protege of the great Grover Alexander, the dean of the Cub pitchers and one of the finest pitchers of all times. Alex found Kauffman possessed of a lot of natural ability and the facility for learning. He took him in hand and made a pitcher out of him.

Not all great artists can teach. Some of the best instructors in sports are those who were not wizards in the actual performance of their art. Many of the best managers and trainers in the boxing world were ham fighters, but they had ideas they were able to carry out and which they could impart to others.

Jimmy De Forest was never a great fighter and yet he is accepted as the greatest teacher of boxing and to most successful developer of fighters in the country.

Dan Morgan never was a fighter. He got out of politics to become a handler of boxers and he developed a number of great fighters, including Jack Britton, Battling Levinsky and Knockout Brown.

In contrast is the case of Mathewson, whom John McGraw and other qualified critics call the greatest pitcher of all times. Matty had everything and knew everything, but he could not teach.

He had in his fadeaway ball one of the most effective of all pitching deliveries, but he never was able to teach any pitcher to throw it. He only knew how to throw it himself.

It might have been, some thought, that Mathewson did not want to give up the secret, but it is certain that in his new position as a club owner it would be greatly to his advantage to pass it on to his pitchers, and he has several youngsters with the Boston Braves who would become stars with the delivery.

DUNDEE-LEONARD FIRM DISSOLVED

New York, Sept. 20.—Once prosperous and thriving, the firm of Leiner & Carrora has been dissolved.

The parting of the way for the two enterprising young business men came in the announcement from Promoter Jimmy Johnston that the Leonard-Dundee fight, which he postponed from Sept. 5 to Sept. 28, had been called off for good.

Customers were so few in buying tickets for the ninth meeting between the ring merchants that the contract had to be torn up.

Neither one of the business men wanted to work unless there were plenty of customers there.

Johnston said he might match the pair next summer when the customers may have forgotten that the firm had been in business so long.

Army-Notre Dame Game Planned for Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 20. — With the world's series baseball apparently settled between the New York teams, football authorities here have started negotiations to bring the Army-Notre Dame football game of Oct. 13, to Chicago instead of New York, as scheduled. Col. H. B. Hackett, West Point quarterback of 1903, and a leading football referee, has announced his interest in the proposal although the trip west would be an innovation in army football plans.

1916 FUTURITY WINNER IS SOLD FOR $70,000

New York, Sept. 20.—Arthur B. Hancock, owner of the Claiborne stud of Kentucky, and the Ellerslie stud of Virginia, purchased Campfire, the futurity winner of 1916, from R. T. Wilson, Jr., for $70,000.

Campfire has already proved himself in the stud with few opportunities. His two best colts so far are Wilderness, which promised at one time to be the equal of any 3 year old this season, and Big Blaze, the Glen Riddle farm's 2 year old, which won the Grand Union hotel stakes at Saratoga Springs, beating St. James, among others.

WIN FOR ALBERT LEA WILL GIVE THEM TITLE

Albert Lea, Minn., Sept. 20.—The third game of the Southern Minnesota league series between the Albert Lea Tigers and Faribault is to be played here today. The locals already have taken two games of the series and by winning again will clinch the pennant. Clarence Nelson is scheduled to pitch for the home club.

In the absence of Robert Stevenson who has managed the Tigers during the season, and who left to take up his coaching duties at De Pauw university, Chicago, George "Chief" Eastman, local shortstop and former manager of the Eveleth ball team, will be at the helm.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

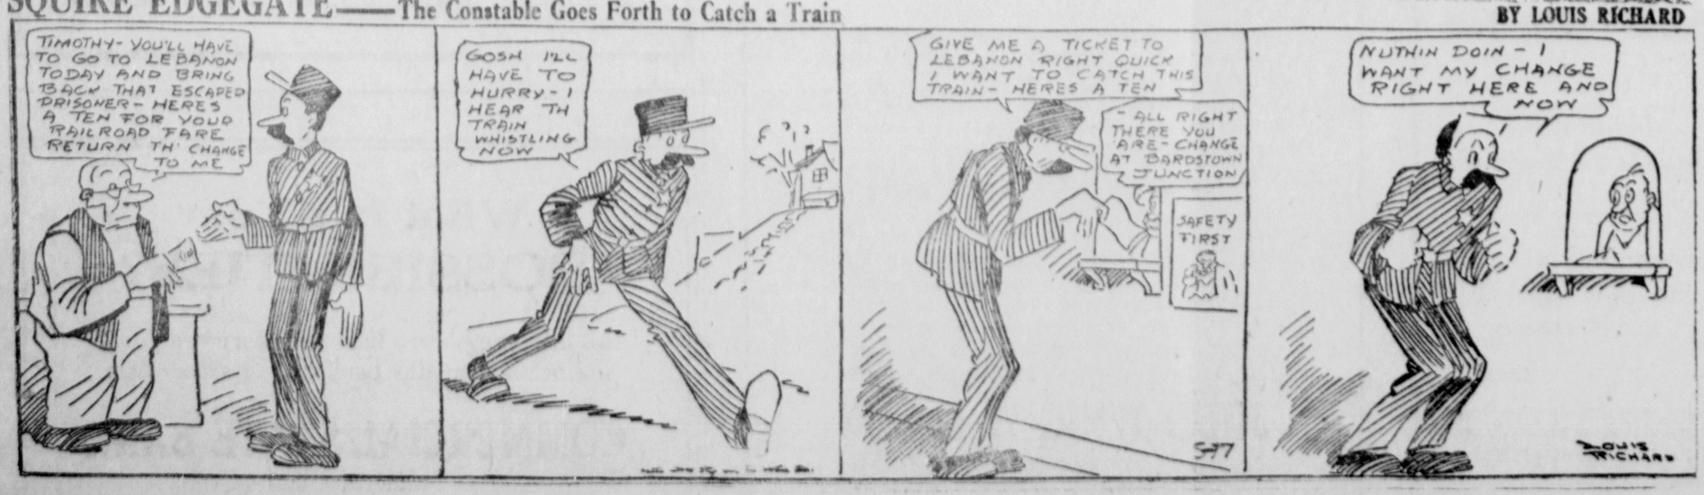

She Kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy With Sage Tea and Sulphur

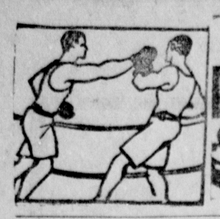

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At little cost, you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, and look years younger. Adv

SPORTS

THE GREATEST BASEBALL FIND OF 1923

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Sept. 20.—Picking the best young ball player of the season as the major league schedules thin down to the last few games of the year is the opening of training for the Hot Stove League.

It is an old diversion, a source of unending arguments and a question that is seldom settled. Ideas about ball players vary with the individuals. Infielders favor infielders, outfielders lean toward outfielders and pitchers apply the closest scrutiny to young hurlers.

Many competent critics regard young Tony Kauffman, the Chicago Cub pitcher, as the best find of the season.

Christy Mathewson, now president of the Boston Braves, expressed the opinion recently that Kauffman is the finest looking pitcher he has seen in years.

The development of Kauffman has an interesting background that is all the more interesting when applied to the praises sounded by Mathewson.

Kauffman is the protege of the great Grover Alexander, the dean of the Cub pitchers and one of the finest pitchers of all times. Alex found Kauffman possessed of a lot of natural ability and the facility for learning. He took him in hand and made a pitcher out of him.

Not all great artists can teach. Some of the best instructors in sports are those who were not wizards in the actual performance of their art. Many of the best managers and trainers in the boxing world were ham fighters, but they had ideas they were able to carry out and which they could impart to others.

Jimmy De Forest was never a great fighter and yet he is accepted as the greatest teacher of boxing and to most successful developer of fighters in the country.

Dan Morgan never was a fighter. He got out of politics to become a handler of boxers and he developed a number of great fighters, including Jack Britton, Battling Levinsky and Knockout Brown.

In contrast is the case of Mathewson, whom John McGraw and other qualified critics call the greatest pitcher of all times. Matty had everything and knew everything, but he could not teach.

He had in his fadeaway ball one of the most effective of all pitching deliveries, but he never was able to teach any pitcher to throw it. He only knew how to throw it himself.

It might have been, some thought, that Mathewson did not want to give up the secret, but it is certain that in his new position as a club owner it would be greatly to his advantage to pass it on to his pitchers, and he has several youngsters with the Boston Braves who would become stars with the delivery.

DUNDEE-LEONARD FIRM DISSOLVED

New York, Sept. 20.—Once prosperous and thriving, the firm of Leiner & Carrora has been dissolved.

The parting of the way for the two enterprising young business men came in the announcement from Promoter Jimmy Johnston that the Leonard-Dundee fight, which he postponed from Sept. 5 to Sept. 28, had been called off for good.

Customers were so few in buying tickets for the ninth meeting between the ring merchants that the contract had to be torn up.

Neither one of the business men wanted to work unless there were plenty of customers there.

Johnston said he might match the pair next summer when the customers may have forgotten that the firm had been in business so long.

Army-Notre Dame Game Planned for Chicago

Chicago, Sept. 20. — With the world's series baseball apparently settled between the New York teams, football authorities here have started negotiations to bring the Army-Notre Dame football game of Oct. 13, to Chicago instead of New York, as scheduled. Col. H. B. Hackett, West Point quarterback of 1903, and a leading football referee, has announced his interest in the proposal although the trip west would be an innovation in army football plans.

1916 FUTURITY WINNER IS SOLD FOR $70,000

New York, Sept. 20.—Arthur B. Hancock, owner of the Claiborne stud of Kentucky, and the Ellerslie stud of Virginia, purchased Campfire, the futurity winner of 1916, from R. T. Wilson, Jr., for $70,000.

Campfire has already proved himself in the stud with few opportunities. His two best colts so far are Wilderness, which promised at one time to be the equal of any 3 year old this season, and Big Blaze, the Glen Riddle farm's 2 year old, which won the Grand Union hotel stakes at Saratoga Springs, beating St. James, among others.

WIN FOR ALBERT LEA WILL GIVE THEM TITLE

Albert Lea, Minn., Sept. 20.—The third game of the Southern Minnesota league series between the Albert Lea Tigers and Faribault is to be played here today. The locals already have taken two games of the series and by winning again will clinch the pennant. Clarence Nelson is scheduled to pitch for the home club.

In the absence of Robert Stevenson who has managed the Tigers during the season, and who left to take up his coaching duties at De Pauw university, Chicago, George "Chief" Eastman, local shortstop and former manager of the Eveleth ball team, will be at the helm.

Four World's Records Set in Rifle Matches

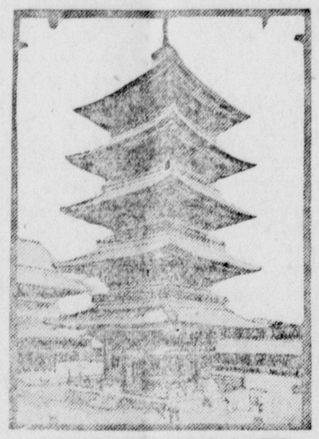

Camp Perry, Ohio, Sept. 20.—The individual Palma match, the small bore east and west team match and the National Rifle association free rifle matches occupied the attention of the contestants in the National Rifle association tournament here.

Four world's records were established here. By piling up a score of 5,301, the United States international team set a new record in the international free rifle team match on the 300 meter ranges. Sergeant Morris Fisher, U. S. Marine corps, Washington, topped his four teammates with a score of 1,090, which is a world's record, and established another one, when he scored 835 at the prone position.

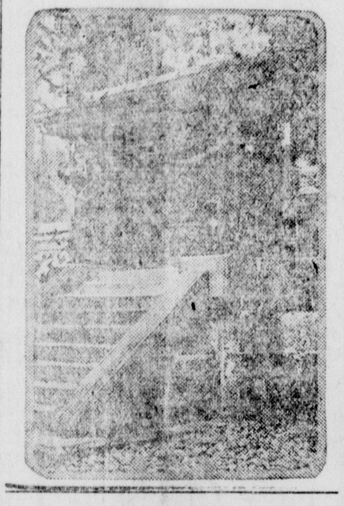

Yingling Back

Earl Yingling, who was suspended from the Minneapolis baseball team two months ago for inability to get into condition, was called back by Pongo Cantillon on account of the shortage of pitchers, and joined the team at Kansas City. He pitched one inning in the doubleheader with the Blues yesterday.
